

By Order of the Supreme Court of the State of Delaware dated April 20, 2005, Phillip J. Collins, Esquire was indefinitely suspended from the practice of law in this State. Collins failed to appear as directed before the Court and show cause why he should not be suspended as a member of the Delaware Bar for failing to file his 2005 annual registration statement with the Court and pay the assessment and late fee associated therewith. Collins is prohibited from practicing law in this State indefinitely and until such time as he petitions the Court for reinstatement and demonstrates, by clear and convincing evidence, his fitness to practice law in the State of Delaware.
